

THE MASTER'S UNIVERSITY

GOLF CART/UTILITY CART WRITTEN TEST

1. What type of inspection should you perform before driving a utility or golf cart?

- 120 degree
- 360 degree
- 90 degree
- Inspection, who even does that.

2. Is a valid drivers license required to operate a golf cart or utility vehicle at TMU?

- Yes
- No

3. Do pedestrians ALWAYS have the right of way?

- Yes, but only in some areas
- Never
- Yes, always!
- What is a pedestrian?

4. Should you drive a golf cart if you are impaired or not physically able to drive?

- Yes
- No

5. What types of turns are statistically proven to be the most dangerous?

- Left hand turns
- Right hand turns
- Reverse turns
- Straight turns

6. How many passengers should ride in the golf cart or utility vehicle at any time?
- As many as possible
 - Only equal to the number of seats available
 - Only the driver
 - Three more than the driver
7. Should you text, eat or allow yourself to be distracted with other things while operating a golf cart or utility vehicle?
- Yes
 - No
8. Should you leave the keys in the golf cart or utility vehicle when parked and unoccupied?
- No
 - Yes
9. Accident in golf carts and utility vehicles usually occur between?
- Golf cart & other vehicles
 - Golf carts & Pedestrians
 - Golf Carts and buildings
 - All of the above
10. Is it okay to park in a red curbed fire lane, disabled space, and/or block ingress/egress from to parking lots and by pedestrians to/from buildings and sidewalks?
- Yes, if most convenient to where I need to be!
 - No, this is selfish and I should find a place to park near those areas that is not obstructing traffic or potentially breaking the law!